

We want to help you staywhelmed while you explore, create, and lead, as you move from consumers to producers of knowledge.

At Orientation, here's how we'll help you staywhelmed:

- Community Building Activities (TODAY!)
- One-on-One Advising & Registration Appointment (on date you selected)
 - Individual virtual meeting with an Honors Orientation advisor to help you register for Fall 2022 classes, taking into account your interests and any credits you may be bringing in. Be sure to:
 - Complete your Interactive Advising Worksheet (IAW) TODAY, if you haven't already
 - Review your IAW (sent to you via email) & info you receive today from your School/College
 - Honors is a layer to general education/major requirements (not a requirement on top of)
 - Recommended Course Load: 12-16 credits total for fall semester
 - Within those 12-16 credits, UNIV 1784 Honors First-year Seminar, plus 1 or 2 Honors courses
 - Check your email for the link to join your WebEx meeting
 - Visit Honors Orientation – Stamford or Honors Orientation – Storrs pages for full details and reminders

Beyond Orientation, remember there are lots of folks in Honors who can help you staywhelmed:

- Peer Support:
 - Peer Allies Through Honors \(PATH\) - apply to be matched with a peer mentor (check your UConn email for the application in mid-late July, space is limited so apply ASAP!)
 - Honors Guides for Peer Success \(GPS\)
 - UNIV 1784 Student Facilitators
 - Honors Student Organization leaders
- Honors staff and Honors advisors
- All the wonderful UConn resources beyond Honors as well!
